

UG

Department of Economics Course and job outcome

Course Objective

This course aims to familiarise students with the basic micro economic theory, macro-economic policies and Indian economics. It will enable them to understand real world economic issues & problems related to consumers behaviour; production, Markets, distribution & welfare economics. It aims to give student the basic understanding of Indian economics and international economics.

Course Outcome

On completion of the course, the students will be able to understand the general concepts through improving themselves with economic activities and use it I day to day life for future learning. At the most getting familiarise with the type which will help them to link the theories ad economics ideas by mixing with mathematical skill or understand. It will help them to check or know the present economic system of our economy how it's working.

PG

Department of Economics Course and job outcome

Course Objective

This course aims to review major trends I economic indicators and policy debates in India in the Post-independence period with particular emphasis on paradigm shifts and turning point using appropriate analytical framework. This course is designed to expose the students to the advanced principles of microeconomic theory and recent developments in this field. The emphasis will be on thinking like an economist and the course will illustrate how economic concept can be applied to analyse real-life situations.

Course Outcome

On the completion of this course the students will be acquainted with the advanced concepts of economic theory, Public finance, Indian economy, Economic thought, growth & development, Keynesian and post-Keynesian economies, money & banking and mathematical economics and econometrics. The students will better understand the economic scenario of the country and will be instrumental in participation of economic & social problems of the country.